

Can I just pass on Robbie's thanks for the fabulous support you have given him.

As you can imagine the dancers are kept pretty busy and when they are not practising they are eating and sleeping but Robbie knows and appreciates the efforts people are going to and the good wishes they are sending his way.

Lots of people have asked what he is dancing this week. That's a secret – I only know because I guessed from his expression when I asked him. But it is not a natural style for Rob and he will need your votes!

We are really grateful for what you have done – please don't stop!!

Thanks so much
